DAVIS THEATRE.

Last Day of the Homan Musical Revue Shows at 2:30, 6:45 and 8:45.

Today will be the last chance for you to see the Homan Musical Revue at this theatre and no one should miss this opporunity of seeing them, as the bill they do is easily one of the best they have ever put on here, and with the added attraction of the clever trio of singers which they have, makes a show the like of which, has never been seen here for the money. There will be three complete shows today at 2:30, 6:45 and 8:45. For next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the management have secured the Werner-Amoros Troupe, a group of sensational artists who can do almost everything They sing, do acrobatic stunts, jug-gling and music and everything they do is done in a finished manner, leaving nothing to be desired. One of the big features of the act is the imita-tions of Charlie Chaplin, done by one of the troupe and you could not tell him from the original Charlie Chaplin. This act comes direct to the Davis from Keith's Theatre, New York. where they have been making a tre-mendous hit. The photo plays will be changed three times next week, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and big special features wil be shown alt each change, the special feature for Monday and Tuesday in addition to the regular program of Muthal movies will be On the Night Stage. On the will be On the Night Stage. On the Night Stage is released in five reels with a cast which for excellence and artistic and popular reputation, is unusual even in the moving picture world, where hig things are the rule rather than the exception. Robert Edeson, the noted actor, is starred with William S. Hart and Rhea Mitchell. These three are names to conjure with on both the legitimate and fure with on both the legitimate and motion picture stages. On the Night Kansas City Times, Stage will be shown at the Davis theatre next Monday and Tuesday only.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

"The Haunted House of Wild Isle," Two-act Mystery Kalem Film.

The big Kalem cast headed by Anna Nilsson, Robert Walker, Henry Hallam, Harry Millarde and others will present at the Colonial theatre today, the all-absorbing mystery drama "The Haunted House of Wild Isle." a story telling of a young girl Isle," a story telling of a young girl whose lover attempts to explore the haunted house on the island, which is said to be haunted because of the murder of the girl's father. The story is indeed a thrilling one, and abounds in the most intense moments, and is strenuous in the extrame. "The Test of Sincerity," is the big Biograph attraction, with a mammoth cast, while "The Puny Soul of Payer Band" is the traction, with a mammoth cast, while "The Puny Soul of Peter Rand", is the brilliant Selig feature. Lottle Briscoe and Arthur Johnson, appear in the snappy little comedy entitled "On the Road to Reno," the concluding film being "The Wayville Slumber Party," Lubin. Today is Loilypop matines when the management will distribute at the matinee, free lollypops for the children. Watch for the big bill of monster features for Monday, and the monster features for Monday, and the entire week. Everyone's favorite will be presented, and all are assured of a delightful and satisfying week's enter-

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Today will be the last chance to see Today will be the last chance to see the excellent musical comedy show presented by the Broadway Follies Company of fifteen clever artists headed by Martin Lee, Olive May Cody, and Joe Mack. The bill today is entitled "A Hotel Mixup" and is a riot of fun from start to finish. On the plotter program will be seen The Torrent" a fine two reel photoplay with William Clifford and Marie Wal-camp in the leading roles, The Ani-mated Weekly and "Nothing Ever mated Weekly and "Nothing Eve Happens Right," a funny joker come

For next week the management has booked three fine vaudeville numbers with Brennan and Carr in the feature position in "Fun on a Dock", a comedy singing and talking skit, with apecial scenery and electrical effects. Paul Florus a wizard on the xylophone will render geveral fine selection both popular and classical and Foley and Con-nors, two men will introduce the third specialty, a comedy singing and dancing sketch. A special three recl feature with Mary Fuller and Mat Moore ture with Mary Fuller and Mat Moore will be on the program Monday and ruesday entitled "A Daughter of the Nile" by the Victor company. The comedy picture will be "Love and Sour Notes", an exciting comedy with Billie Bitchie and Pessy Pearce. As a special added feature for one day only thursday July first. Harry Lauder, he world's greatest entertainer will be seen in singing and talking pictures, furnishing an hour's entertainment and doing his regular vaudeville be seen in singing and talking pic-tures furnishing an hour's entertain-ment and doing his regular vaudeville specialty along with several other noted Lander stunis. The talking ap-paratus with these pictures is of the very talest model and everything will be heard very distinctly. soured For Races at Fair Grounds On the Fifth of July.

C. V. Pendleton, Jr., returned late Thursday night from a three-days' trip in which he visited Hartford, Springfield, Holyoke, and Windsor, booking entries for the combination motorcycle and horse races to be he at the Norwich Fair grounds July 5th. He has met with remarkable success in securing first-class riders and good horses. There is no doubt but what this combination will prove to be the best afternoon's racing that has ever been witnessed in New London Coun-

For the motorcycle races, there will be the four well-known local men, "Wild Bill" Burdick, Farmer Latham, H. H. Baldwin and Walter Chappell who will ride fast ported racing machines. Burdick will ride the especially fast machine that was used by Nixon of Springfield on last Decoration day. tion day.

Nixon, who had things all his own way in the Decoration day mest, will be on hand, but as he told Pendleton in Springfield Wednesday, he expects to have to go some to beat Burdick this time. Mike Costello from New York who did such wonderful facing York, who did such wonderful facing here under the name of William Prescott, has sent in his entry. Sydney A. Brown, of St. Louis, Mo., from the Hendee factory, will be a new rider here. He is coming to Norwich on Thursday of next week to practice on the track and remain here until after. he track, and remain here until after the races on the 5th.

Bill Leahy of Hartford, E. Petrillo of Pittston, Pa. Duckwith of Lynn, Mass., Litterlo and Calson of Provi-dence are talking of riding here, allough they have not yet signed up riders, the Association has the important announcement to make that either Feddy Carroll of Springfield or Don-

Teddy Carroll of Springheld or Don-ald A. Pope of Boston, will ride in Norwich at this meet. The factory had arranged to send these men to Saratoga, N. X., for the big races which are held there on that data. However, Mr. Pendleton put up a strong argument with the factory to Carroll, but the best he could do on or the other will be sent here. For the horse racing, the 2:20 class as been filled, and there will be a

ANOTHER FIGHTING LINE.

I dedicate these lines to those "patri-its" who have ever been unmindful of the atrocities committed in this country luring the years of so-called peace: Thin, threadbare costs, buttoned across

Thin, threadbare costs, buttoned across the breast,
Thin mended shoes, under the sombre sklex.
Sharp shoulders hunched to reddened ears, lean hands.

FOR THE FALLEN. They shall not grow old, as we that are left grow old;
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again;
They sit no more at familiar tables of home;
They have no lot in our labor of the daytime;
They sleep beyond England's foam. But where our desires are and our
